

Roger S. Bagnall (ed.), with contributions from Mona Haggag, T.M. Hickey, Mohamed G. Elmaghrabi, Arietta Papaconstantinou & Dorothy J. Thompson, Roman Egypt. A History.

Cambridge, Cambridge University Press, 2021, xxxiv-380 pp., figg. ISBN 978-1-108-84490-1. £84.99.

Pp. xxiii-xxvii: Preface. - 1. Laying the foundations for Roman Egypt [D.J.Th.]. - 2. The coming of Roman rule [contributions by M.G.E., T.M.H. & R.S.B.]. - 3. Development and crisis in a Roman province [contributions by R.S.B., T.M.H. & M.G.E.]. - 4. The making of Late Antique Egypt [contributions by M.H., R.S.B. & T.M.H.]. - 5. Divergence and division [contributions by A.P., M.H., R.S.B. & T.M.H.]. - 6. The Persians, the Arab conquest, and another transformation of Egypt [A.P., with a contribution of T.M.H.]. - Epilogue. - Glossary. Bibliography. Index.

C.R. par Aaltje Hidding, JCoptS 25 (2023) pp. 295-297.

2021-0428