Barbara Giubilo, Uno sgradevole personaggio. Appunti sul ritratto di Sanno in Hippon. fr. 129 Dg.

Hipponax's fr. 129 Dg. has a greedy glutton called Sannus as its protagonist. Sannus' profile, as is suggested by several elements in the text, seems to coincide with that of an àkletos, an uninvited guest who would show up at public and private functions, the predecessor of the paràsitos, who is featured in successive comedy.
