Konstantine Panegyres, Hymn fragments on a papyrus from the ruins of the monastery at Deir el-Bala'izah, Egypt.

BZ 117 (2024) pp. 183-192, figg.

Publishes a new papyrus fragment datable to the sixth century from the Bodleian Library, MS. Gr. liturg. f. 2 (P), on which verses of two hymns [P. lit. Lond. 235 (= LDAB 6121; van Haelst 936)] have been preserved. The papyrus contains substantial textual variations, and is to be regarded as a witness of considerable importance in the textual tradition of the hymns.
